Thanks for choosing to order Custom Smugglers with us!

As these pairs are made specifically for you, we're unable to sell them to the general public. Because of this, there are a few terms and conditions to check out.

COLOURS:

We understand colours are important. Please note that colours on the screen may vary to how they're printed. If you are really particular about the colours you require, please supply us your specific colours in CMYK. We are unable to match an exact colour due to the printing process but we will get as close as we can. If you need to be 100% sure, our designers will be happy to print a strike off for you to approve before production. Please note this will extend your production time by up to 2 weeks.

We will be unable to refund your order based on colour issues. So please opt for a strike off if the colours are super important!

SIZING:

Please note we are unable to refund/exchange due to incorrect sizing chosen. If you are unsure of sizing, please check our size guide, try a stock pair from the online store - or borrow a mate's pair!

FAULTY:

This should rarely happen, but if your pairs are faulty, please let us know immediately! You have 30 days to inform us of any issues, after this time we are unable to issue a refund or reprint. We will either be able to remake these for you if time permits, or we can organise a refund for faulty pairs. We'll require the original pairs to be returned to us at our cost.

DELIVERY DATE:

Production takes typically 4 weeks from receiving your payment, allowing a week for delivery. If you require your pairs for a specific date, please let us know as early as possible and prior to paying for the order. We will let you know if this is possible - and if so, we'll do our best to meet this deadline.

Please note that the 4 week timeline is a guide, and if there is a delay to this there will be no refund payable.

CHANGE OF MIND:

Once you make your deposit or payment in full, the pairs will make their way swiftly into production within 24hrs. Once this happens, we will not be able to accommodate any change of mind on design or lower quantities, and we may not be able to issue a refund in part or in full. If you change your mind and the pairs are yet to enter production, we can refund the unmade pairs, however any setup fees will be non refundable.

DELIVERY ISSUES:

Please double check your delivery address on your invoice, as this will be the address that your custom Smugglers will be delivered to. Budgy Smuggler is not responsible if the pairs are delivered to an incorrect address supplied by you or responsible for a lost/unsuccessful delivery by a courier - but we will help try to locate or redirect the parcel if possible.

BANK TRANSFERS:

We are able to accept payments via BACS. We require payment in full for all orders under £500 in order to go to production. For orders above £500, we are able to begin production with 50% payment; the remaining 50% then needs to be paid in full before we are able to ship them to you.

UPON COMPLETION OF PAYING THE INVOICE YOU AGREE TO ALL OF THE ABOVE TERMS AND CONDITIONS
