Be sure to blend well

Kristen Fortier, makeup artist and product innovation lead for Crunchi Cosmetics, says blending will help ensure the most natural and seamless finish. “If needed, you can also go over the product with your foundation brush, without adding any more product, to blend and help create a beautiful airbrush finish,” she advises.

Define the jawline

Fortier has a fool-proof method to help your jaw appear more defined. Apply a matte bronzer—Fortier suggests Crunchi Solarise Bronzer ($36)—in small circular motions using a fluffy brush. “Work from one side of the jaw, just below the ears, to the other and blend down toward the neck.”
